SUNDAY, JANUARY 17, 1897,—COPYRIGHT, 1897, BY W. R. HEARST.

Our 60th Street low buildings must now come down to let the builders begin.

Many whole stocks } must be quickly { moved regardless of \ what such a sacrifice means.

A MASSIVE STRUCTURE WILL RISE. Wi hin two weeks we begin rebuilding the 60th St. side of our store, adding in all several acres of space. Carpenters and masons are now ready to come in, but with over 30 Large Stocks to be first cleared away we announce AT ONCE in all departments

A Great Rebuilding Sale.

We have no alternative. The imperative necessity of reducing these stocks AT ONCE leaves us no other course. We are FORCED to self-dollars take up less room than goods, Hence, the need of reducing vast quantities of merchandise to a small bulk of cash.
